

KIMBERLY CLARK SHARP, MSW, LCSW

P.O. Box 84333
Seattle, WA 98124
(206) 525-5489
kimnde@aol.com

- Author of “After the Light: The Spiritual Path to Purpose” (Wm. Morrow & Co. 1995); audio (HarperCollins 1995); paperback (Avon 1996); iUniverse.com (current);
- American and Canadian Literary Guild Alternate Book of the Month; catalogued in the United States Library of Congress
- Founder of Seattle International Association of Near Death Studies, the world’s oldest support group for near-death experiencers, since 1982
- Named one of the forty most influential people under the age of 40 in the Pacific Northwest, 1987
- Founder of the Department of Social Work at Fred Hutchison Cancer Research Center (world’s first bone marrow transplant center)
- Pioneer in the field of critical care social work, Harborview Medical Center (10 years)
- International conference and workshop speaker
- Published in many journals, textbooks and magazines
- Consultant to news and entertainment industry
- Co-Instructor, Terminal Illness Seminar, School of Medicine, University of Washington (1977-1997)
- Clinical assistant professor, School of Social Work, University of Washington (2 decades)
- Master of Social Work, University of Washington, 1976; current License in Clinical Social Work, State of Washington Department of Health